Your Questions Answered

RED DOOR[®]
— TOURS —

Keen to visit India let me answer a few common questions.

Is it safe to travel to India?

I always feel safe and warmly welcomed in India. Visit the Australian Government website Smart Traveller for up-to-date, advice.

Do I need vaccinations?

Check with your local doctor and consult the Smart Traveller website for advice to suit you.

Which airlines fly to India?

AirIndia and Qantas fly direct to Delhi from some Australian cities. Singapore, Cathay Pacific and Malaysian Airlines also fly to India.

Do I need a visa?

Australians and New Zealanders need an e-visa to enter India. It's a simple online process costing around AU $40.

What kind of people join our tours?

Our travellers are typically mature, well travelled people who are looking to explore some of the more unusual destinations. They enjoy culture, history and textiles but don't want a history lecture! They are flexible, easy going and enjoy meeting like minded travellers. A sense of humour is always welcome!

Is the food and water safe?

It's recommended to drink only bottled water. We provide plenty of water, including water to brush your teeth. Avoid salad and raw vegetables.

Can you recommend a travel agent to book our flights?

We recommend Michelle Young, an independant travel agent. She charges a booking fee. Email: myoung@mtatravel.com.au

Yes, I can arrange additional accommodation either side of the tour.

Check prior to booking if you have dietary requirements. In most cases, they can be catered for.

Is there time for independent exploration?

All activities are optional. Our tuk tuk day in Jaipur is always a favourite. You have the reassurance of knowing you are in safe hands and the flexibility to choose from more than 40 activities ... massage, textile museums, shopping, sightseeing, markets and more.

We always allow time in our daily itinerary for spontaneity, which India offers!

Our tours are for travellers who embrace the journey. They embrace the good and the bad that comes with travel.
